The Parish has $10,000 in Bank Stock viz 200 shares in the Farmers Bank of Maryland; now (1880) producing 7 per cent int. amounting to $337 state tax p'd. semiannually on 700 (less 22 dollars state tax) per annum

The Parish also owns a Parsonage, a two story best frame house, now (1880) about ten years old.
(as appears but badly built, and not in good repair, and from the a Glebe, of about 60 acres of land, poor, but looks) improvable. On this a county tax of 39.36 is about $1380 paid. June 12, 1880, 1000 bushels shell lime paid out (cost $80) were put upon the land; the Vestry of the designing a course of improvement. proceeds of the Fund. The Rector receives $500 per annum (paid semiannually) out of the proceeds of the Fund. The rest is expended on incidental charges and improvements

The Sexton of each church receives $10 per annum NB So far as I can ascertain from the Church books the parishioners contribute nothing!

The Communion Plate consists of one Patern about 6 inches in diameter, heavy chased rim, and foot abt $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches high; and two cups (double handled, about 7 inches high, $2\frac{1}{2}$ in diameter, of silver. The two cups were originally but one, which was broken up and refashioned into two, under the Rectory of the Rev. Henry Bisquith.
 It was given by John Brice, in 1713. The Patern bears the original inscription; viz "The gift of John Brice for the use of the Communion Table, Westminster Parish in Maryland 1713". The cups bear each a copy of the same inscription, which was on the original. ~~If the larger~~ ^{of the cups} one is ~~now~~ used in the Parish Church in Broad Neck, and one in the chapel, the Patern being removed from one to the other as wanted.
 They are now in keeping of the Rector.

The Parish Books, brought me this day, at my request by John Ridout of the Register of the Parish, consist of

1. A Register, of 100 leaves of parchment (a number having been cut out at the end) and 3 of paper at the beginning.

 the first page is of the date March 10th 1787

It contains 109 leaves of paper (24 yet blank) he fills together with the Registrarship.

On the first outer (parchment) cover of the Register
